

Reds Shoot Up Military Car, U. S. Protests

HEIDELBERG, Germany (AP) — The U. S. Army in Europe has strongly protested to the Russians against the actions of East German police in shooting up a U. S. military car.

The incident occurred Tuesday morning, when a police squad stopped a khaki-colored automobile of the U. S. military mission stationed at Soviet headquarters in Potsdam, near Berlin.

Submachine gun fire punctured a tire and several bullets entered the trunk compartment, but the U. S. major and his driver, the only occupants, were not hit. They eventually returned to Potsdam safely.

The shooting, the second such case in a month involving Western military liaison officers stationed at Potsdam, roused Western speculation as to what may be behind the sudden toughness. Western liaison missions from Potsdam have been free to travel in East Germany for 17 years. Soviet missions have similar rights in West Germany.

Gen. Bruce C. Clarke, commander of the U. S. Army in Europe, made the American protest, the Army announced. It was addressed to Marshal Ivan S. Konev, Soviet commander in East Germany, and delivered to the deputy chief of the Soviet military mission at Gen. Clarke's office Thursday. The contents were not disclosed.

The Army pinpointed the scene of the incident, however, as near Wahlwinkel, 12 miles east of Elsenach and west of Gotha. This is an area near the West German border and about 150 miles southwest of Berlin.

The Army said the action of the Vopos—East German people's police—in stopping the official car was "unaccountable and improper."

An earlier account issued in Berlin Thursday night said the U. S. major protested at being stopped and demanded to see a Soviet officer.

The police squad leader replied "we are in charge here."

The major and the police leader argued at length, and after about an hour the major told his driver to drive on.

The police then opened fire. The major and his driver stopped to fix the tire some miles down the road and finally received help from another U. S. liaison car sent from Potsdam.

NO WEAK SISTER—Unbelievable as it sounds, young lady above is pushing 15,000 pounds of steel with her fingertip—with the help of a new friction-free air bearing. Developed by General Dynamics/Astronautics, the bearing resembles a simple platform. High-pressure air forced through channels underneath the bearing allows easy movement of heavy objects, while the weight floats on a thin cushion of air. Using such bearings, one man could move an Atlas missile.

Search for Armed Man Spreads

SILAM SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — A score of officers pressed a manhunt in woods four miles east of here today for an armed man who stole a State Police car Thursday night after holding up a trooper.

His partner was caught last night in a highway chase. Participating in the manhunt were State Police from Oklahoma and Arkansas, sheriff's officers from three counties, and Silam Springs city officers.

Arkansas State Police said they understood the man was wanted for armed robbery in Fort Smith. State Trooper James Morgan said he stopped the two men in a stolen car Thursday night east of Silam Springs on state Highway 68.

One of them pulled a gun on him and took his pistol and patrol car, and the other escaped in the stolen car.

Morgan had radioed Silam Springs City Police just before he stopped the stolen car, and a city police car picked him up moments after the other two cars had pulled away.

The officers overtook the man in the stolen car and arrested him. Then the State Police car was wrecked and the driver escaped into the woods.

Spends $2.2 Million for Medical Care

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Welfare Commissioner Carl Adams said Thursday $2.2 million in medical care was paid to 33,800 persons during the first five months of the federal medical care program which started last Oct. 1.

Adams estimated another $3.5 million will go to 80,000 others during the seven months remaining in the first year of the program.

Funds for Medicare, set up under the Kerr-Mills Bill, are provided on a four-to-one matching basis between the state and the federal government.

The 1961 state legislature appropriated a maximum of $2 million for matching purposes but the Welfare Department, Adams said, probably will receive only between $1.2 and $1.4 million.

However the commissioner said he sees no danger of running short of funds before the new appropriation is made next year.

The program provides hospital care, outpatient treatment, dental services, physicians' fees, drugs and nursing home care for eligible persons.

Only persons over 65 with limited income are eligible. Application must be made through county welfare offices but, Adams said, some persons apparently assume payment is automatic and check into a hospital without making the required application.

Strikes Called in Argentina By President

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ. BUENOS AIRES (AP)—Peronists pitted their working masses against President Arturo Frondizi today with a 24-hour protest strike.

In this capital at midday there were signs the followers of ousted dictator Juan D. Peron had faltered. But in the hard-core Peronist industrial areas outside they showed strength.

Buses, trains and other forms of transportation buzzed as usual in and around the capital. Residents got their morning milk and newspaper deliveries on time. Store clerks showed up for work and downtown business functioned.

From Rosario, usually a pro-Peronist stronghold, official reports said the strike there was only partial. But nothing had been heard from restless Cordoba, the vast interior industrial complex with U. S. auto factories. Officials had said they expected the walk-out to be effective there.

Peronist strength, on the basis of these fragmentary reports, seemed centered in the industrial towns around Buenos Aires. Peron had built his power there before his ouster in 1955.

There still were signs of tension in official quarters, and fears that strike violence may set off a military coup that would depose Frondizi. But there was no word of any troubles.

Hector Gomez Machado, Frondizi's majority leader in congress, said the event of the day were "a process of psychological warfare to alter the tranquility of the country."

It was the president's 35th crisis.

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ. BUENOS AIRES (AP) — Followers of ousted dictator Juan D. Peron launched a nationwide anti-government strike today as military pressure mounted for President Arturo Frondizi's ouster.

National police went on battle alert as the strike began at mid-night amid fears of violence. Pro-Peron labor unions summoned nearly 2 million workers to strike for 24 hours in protest against Frondizi's decree—ordered by the military—nullifying sweeping Peronist victories in National Assembly and provincial elections last Sunday.

The full effect of the strike was not expected to be felt until later in the day, but officials predicted it would not be paralyzing. The powerful Transport Workers Union said it would not take part. Other unions also refused to join in, but went on record as opposed to Frondizi.

The three armed service secretaries huddled with top military commanders at Government House in an early morning meeting at first described as decisive. The 90-minute conference broke up at 3:30 a.m. with no announcement.

Word leaked out that irate navy leaders once again pressed their demands that Frondizi resign. Army and air force chiefs, who had stood for retaining Frondizi, were reported wavering under the navy officers' insistence that he be ousted.

The military tossed Peron out in 1955 and is violently opposed to his return. It stopped short of taking over the government earlier this week when Frondizi agreed to form a new anti-Peron coalition government with a half-military, half-civilian cabinet and to once again ban Peronist political activity.

Frondizi rushed from a glittering banquet for Britains visiting Prince Philip to his private residence for an early morning conference with the president of the lower house of Congress, Fernandez de Monjardin. There was no report from the conference.

A Frondizi spokesman predicted the president would have the new cabinet formed by Sunday. But the nation's major anti-Peron political groups have thus far resoundingly rejected Frondizi's overtures.

The opposition parties are strongly opposed to Frondizi's austerity measures. But Frondizi has insisted throughout the crisis—his 36th since elected to the presidency in 1958—that he will neither resign nor cancel his austerity program, which was blamed for his election setback.

Secret Army in Algiers Hit With Ambush

ALGIERS (AP) — French military planes strafed the defiant worker suburb of Bab El Oued today and authorities reported heavy street fighting continues in the area.

Four U. S.-made T6 training planes sprayed machine gun bullets into large apartment buildings from which men with Secret Army armbands fired bullets and tossed grenades on French ground troops below them.

At 5 p.m. (11 a.m. EST), officials reported at least 10 soldiers killed and 30 wounded in the street fighting.

By ANDREW BOROWIEC. ALBIERS (AP) — Secret Army commandos ambushed one French army patrol today and robbed another of its arms after night-long attacks on government strongpoints and police posts throughout the heart of Algiers.

Shooting continued in various parts of Algiers today. The atmosphere was one of mounting civil strife, with Frenchmen firing on Frenchmen.

Reliable informants said six soldiers were killed and 12 wounded in the ambush on the patrol in the European workers section of Bab El Oued. The gunmen from the European Secret Army — which is fighting to keep Algeria French — also suffered casualties but the number was not learned immediately.

Earlier a group of Secret Army commandos held up another military patrol and made off with their arms.

The European terrorists were not deterred by an impressive military buildup in the city. Armored vehicles were stationed at many points, and military units ringed the Bab El Oued quarter, which the Secret Army said Thursday it would clear of French troops and police.

Despite the government's military show, Secret Army activists spread oil and tacks on the streets, slowing traffic to a crawl in several parts of the city. In a traffic tunnel near the University of Algiers, a 10-man unit stopped pedestrians and motorists to examine their papers, apparently searching for government plainclothesmen.

Gunfire, punctuated by plastic bomb explosions, raged for 6½ hours in the worst night since proclamation of the cease-fire Monday.

Two civilians were reported killed and at least three French gendarmes and nine civilians were wounded in the shooting, which rattled through a dozen areas of the city.

U. S. Rejects Plea to Ship China Grain

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Seattle, Wash., trading firm's request for permission to ship $400 million of grain to Communist China and North Korea was rejected today by the government.

Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges announced the denial of export license applications from the International Trading Corp., Seattle, for sales of wheat and barley to the two Communist nations in Asia.

A two sentence announcement said there was no evidence that the order was based upon a request from the governments concerned.

Officials indicated this was a roundabout way of saying that the proposed grain shipment had been subject to discussions between the Commerce Department and the International Trading Corp and did not involve any talks with the governments of Red China and North Korea.

There is a complete embargo on shipments of American goods and products to the two countries. However, the Commerce Department at least considered making an exception to the rule in this case. Officials said they could not say why this had been done.

President Kennedy was asked at a recent news conference about reports that a grain deal with Communist China, which has been suffering from agricultural failures, was being considered. He confirmed that the Seattle firm had applied for a license.

The proposed shipments would have extended over three years. Communist China had wanted six million tons of grain while North Korea had put in an order for 4.5 million tons.

LAST MONTH - IN HISTORY

The cost secret of these moderately priced natural walnut storage units is the finish. A new lacquering technique gives the wood the expensive gloss-free look of hand-rubbed finishes, giving greater emphasis to the wood grain.

Expanding file folders and inexpensive file boxes serve to keep family records orderly and readily accessible. These simple units replace cardboard storage cartons with an everything-in-its-place filing system.

Millions of Hours of TV Viewing

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — If you total up all the hours each TV set is on, there are 24 million hours of TV viewing each day in America. That is just one of the startling totals turned up by a trade organization, the Television Bureau of Advertising, in its annual state-of-TV study.

The bureau's break-down of the nation's viewing habits for 1961 puts the number of sets at 49 million and indicates that the average home has its sets turned on for slightly more than five hours a day. That doesn't quite reach the record of five hours and 10 minutes achieved in 1957. While viewing continues to diminish slightly, the bureau's figures show daytime audiences are picking up.

There are now well over six million homes with two or more sets, the bureau said.

Bob Hope's show, whenever it turns up on NBC, invariably picks up the audience of the month. People just seem to like to watch Bob.

Highpoint of his program is the star's monologue, invariably topical, irreverent and sharply witty — but then the show usually steps into a ragged mish-mash. The sketches usually appear to be rehearsed casually, if at all, and the guest stars are constantly overcome with uncontrollable fits of the giggles.

Things were about normal on Thursday night. Ethel Merman did belt out a couple of songs with customary verve. Piper Laurie and Maximilian Shale demonstrated little aptitude for comedy in the sketches, and Fabian, of rock 'n' roll fame, sang and tried to

Starts Serving a 297 Year Term

WAXAHACHIE, Tex. (AP) — Sheriff's officers took Oscar A. Kernohan Jr. to prison Wednesday to start serving 297 years for three murders.

Dist. Judge A. R. Slout sentenced Kernohan, 33, to cumulative terms of 99 years in each case.

Kernohan, a balding Army deserter who heard testimony without changing expression displayed a trace of a smile as jurors recommended one of the sentences in the forenoon. Prosecutors had called for the death penalty.

The jury convicted Kernohan of killing his stepson, Roger Allen Gibbs, 2-1-2, three days after he went absent without leave Dec.

swap jokes with Bob. Despite everything, it was a Bob Hope show and it was fun to watch.

Eddie Adams will star in a half-hour ABC variety show April 9 — in a time slot occupied by her late husband's specials and also with the sponsors who underwrote Ernie Kovacs' shows. "The Dick Van Dyke how" has been renewed for another year on CB in the same time slot.

I recommended weekend viewing:
Thursday—"Tonight in Amarland," CB, 8:30-9:30 p.m., drama special with James Mason and Janice Rule in a circus story.

Friday—"Arms and the late," NBC, 10-11 p.m. — One of the "White Paper" series, about the defense effort and its effect on American life.

Electricians at A - Base Delay Strike

CHEYENNE, Wyo. (AP)—Fourteen electricians of the Atlas missile sites near here decided Wednesday night to delay a strike until the end of the month. It had been scheduled for this morning.

Joe Murdock, job steward for the electricians, said they would try to work out differences with Chicago Local 134, of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers.

The Cheyenne-based members of the union claim the local is not giving them adequate representation in wage negotiations.

The men say the local is trying to get them to accept an unfavorable contract with Base Services Inc., operators of the communications systems at Atlas missile bases around the country.

Murdock said the men decided to delay the walkout because of the national defense work they are doing.

In Washington, Gordon M. Freeman, president of the union, said he sent telegrams to all brotherhood vice presidents, saying in part: "As the international president I have made a commitment (to the government) that there shall be no stoppages of this nature reportedly threatened in the news story from Cheyenne. This commitment I intend to keep. Please take all steps necessary to see that this vital work goes forward at all missile bases without interruption."

Murdock said the union is trying to get the workers to accept a two-year contract with a 7 1/2 cents an hour wage increase. The men earn $3.64 an hour and are seeking the prevailing wage for other electrical workers at the missile sites. In Cheyenne this would be $4.05 an hour, Murdock said.

He said the contract has been turned down twice by the 240 members of the local and a third tried to get other local members vote is being taken.

The Cheyenne electricians had to walk out at bases at Abilene, Tex.; Altus, Okla.; Roswell, N.M.; Plattsburgh, N.Y.; Camp Vandenberg, Calif.; Salina, Kan.; and Topeka, Kan. Murdock said all members at the bases were going to stay on their jobs.

Murdock said the Cheyenne men have been working without a contract since Dec. 31.

Week after week carefully tabulated figures published in "Automotive Market Reports" show that Chevrolet trucks are worth more in resale value.

why?

If you were a professional used truck buyer, why would you pay more for one make than another?

There may be several reasons, but among them would be:

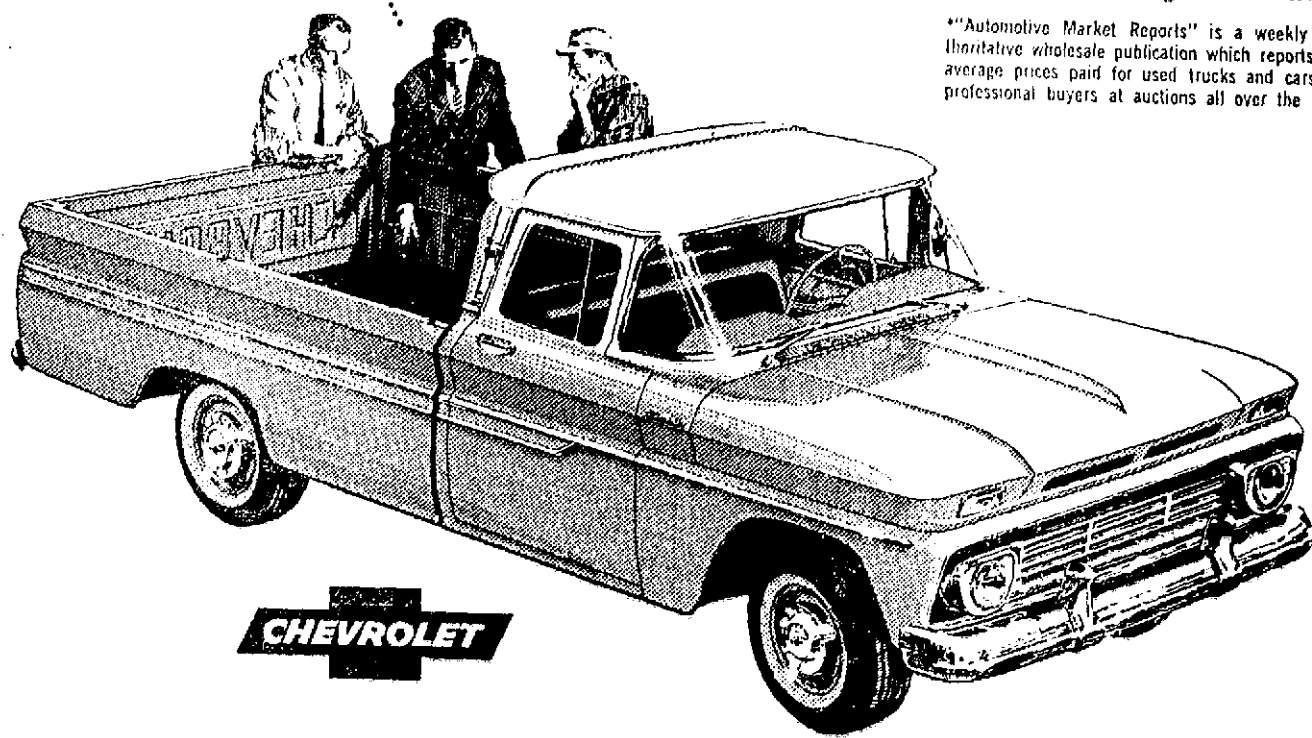

1. A greater demand for the product

2. A more desirable product for resale

So if using Chevrolet trucks consistently bring higher prices at auctions all over the country, it means that their quality features pay off for you not only as long as you own them but also when you are ready to trade them—double-wall cabs, doors and side panels, roof insulation, select wood floors, reliable and economical engines, real rugged tailgates, a suspension system that helps prolong truck life.

See your Chevrolet dealer for a quality '62 Chevrolet Jobmaster truck.

"Automotive Market Reports" is a weekly authoritative publication which reports the average prices paid for used trucks and cars by professional buyers at auctions all over the U.S.

the city.
The Algiers zone command said the attacks had no major military significance. Other government officials described them as nothing but harassing.

Secret Army commandos struck at heavily guarded government buildings and at two riot police camps in the eastern part of the capital but they made no attempt to capture the key points.

French security forces, loyal to the armistice pact President Charles de Gaulle's government made with the Algerian nationalists, fired back.

The terrorists were supported by European settlers firing from rooftops and windows, spraying machine-gun bullets and lobbing grenades and mortar shells into concentrations of French gendarmes guarding strategic points in the city.

Faubus' Son to Quit Politics

HUNTSVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Farrell Faubus, the governor's son and Madison County representative, announced his pending retirement from politics Thursday to return to college.

Young Faubus, who was elected to his post last June 27 at the age of 22, told of his plans in his father's newspaper, the weekly Madison County Record.

He succeeded A. C. Mowery Jr., who resigned to join the state Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

Farrell said he was "mindful of the fact that it was a great distinction for me to represent the people of my county in the legislature while only 22 years of age and at the time my father was chief executive of the state."

At the time of his election he was enrolled in the University of Arkansas Law School which he plans to re-enter.

Eugene Holloway, a Huntsville Democrat, has announced plans for seeking young Faubus' seat.

Columnist Again Irks Arkansans

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - A remark by columnist Dorothy Kilgallen about the reaction of Arkansans to a traveling art exhibit has drawn fire from the state publicity director.

Miss Kilgallen wrote Wednesday that Mrs. Winthrop Rockefeller would tour the state with an art-mobile exhibiting a collection of paintings.

She suggested that a television network cover the project and added: "The reactions of the natives ought to be fascinating."

Publicity Director Clovis Copeland said he was drafting a letter of protest to be presented to the Publicity and Parks Commission today.

Copeland said he wants to invite Miss Kilgallen to see the people of Arkansas.

BANKING ON DEATH

THE STORY? John Thatcher learns that a Carl Robert Schneider is head of an industrial firm in Buffalo. He believes this may be the missing heir to a trust fund that is to be distributed.

Chapter 5
Ken Nicolls received the summons from Thatcher with a grimace of pain. He abandoned all hope of presenting to the world the picture of a rising young trust officer; his goal now was to appear conscious after the Christmas holiday.

"Good morning, Nicolls," said Thatcher, in a brisk business-like voice, "I think that you'd better try Buffalo Industrial Products for your Schneider." He had decided not to tender any explanation with this information. Simple omniscience would be his line.

"Sir?" said Nicolls weakly, wondering what in the world Thatcher was talking about.

"Schneider, Robert Schneider. You are a bank officer in charge of the Schneider Trust and engaged in a search for Robert Schneider. There is one at Buffalo Industrial Products. See if he's the right man," he added tartly.

"Where is it?"
"Buffalo Industrial Products is, curiously enough, located in Buffalo," he said acidly. "Go and call them up, and," he concluded on a slightly more human note, "you'd better get yourself a Bromo Seltzer first."

It was just as well that Ken secured maximum fortification before putting through his call. It was with a sense of relief that, after alarming clicks and buzzes, he was finally connected with Buffalo.

"Good morning, Buffalo Industrial Products. Can I help you?"
"Good morning, I would like to speak with Mr. Robert Schneider."

"Mr. Schneider?" said the voice suspiciously. "Who's calling please?"
"This is Mr. Nicolls of the Sloan Guaranty Trust in New York."

"I think that you'd better talk with Mr. Michaels," said the voice in some confusion.

"About what?" said Nicolls in great confusion, but the answer was a series of clicks.

"Hello," boomed a confident male voice, that made Ken wince. "I understand that you want Robert Schneider."

"Yes," said Nicolls with irritation, "I represent the Sloan Guaranty and I must speak with Mr. Schneider. The matter is urgent."

"I don't give a hoot how urgent it is," replied the voice triumphantly, "you're going to have a time doing it. He was murdered two weeks ago!"

Two hours later Nicolls was re-

Casey Has His Revenge Early Over Yankees

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

The satisfying taste of revenge still lingered today with Casey Stengel, the frisky septuagenarian who has no regrets about his decision to leave the plucky office of a bank vice president for the unadorned cubby hole of a major league baseball manager.

Stengel, 71, fired by the New York Yankees two years ago after guiding the team to 10 pennants in 12 years, never figured a measure of revenge would be his so quickly when he was tapped to manage the New York Mets for their 1962 National League debut.

But Stengel watched with evident satisfaction Thursday as his collection of hand-me-downs throttled the big bats of the world champions and gained a 4-3 victory at St. Petersburg in their first meeting of the exhibition season.

"Oh, it was just lovely," said Stengel after a pinch-hit single by Richie Ashburn drove in the winning run in the last of the ninth. "It's terrific. It should be very good for my players."

The triumph also gave a lift to Mets Coach Rogers Hornsby, Hall of Famer with a .350 lifetime batting average who had been snubbed by 61-home run hitter Roger Maris of the Yankees in a pre-game incident.

Hornsby was asked by a photographer to pose with Maris, agreed. But when the two went to the Yankee's dugout, Maris walked away, refusing to pose. Hornsby, who supposedly has made some unattractive comments on Maris' hitting ability, exploded.

"That bush leaguer," he stormed. "I've posed for pictures with some major league hitters—not bush leaguers."

In other Florida games, Kansas City whipped Washington 6-3 at Pompano Beach, Los Angeles Dodgers beat Detroit 6-4 at Lakeland, St. Louis defeated the Chicago White Sox 3-1 at Sarasota, Cincinnati hopped Philadelphia 4-2 at Tampa, Pittsburgh knocked off Minnesota 6-3 at Fort Myers and Baltimore won a 5-1 inning rain-shortened contest 6-0 over Milwaukee at Bradenton.

In Arizona clashes, Houston edged the Chicago Cubs 2-1 at Mesa, San Francisco nipped Cleveland 6-5 at Phoenix and the Los Angeles Angels edged Boston 4-3 at Scottsdale.

President to California for a Speech

By WHITNEY HOEMAKER

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy heads today for California to make a speech, receive an honorary degree and rest in the desert resort area of Palm Springs.

He also will tour Vandenberg Air Force Base and there's a possibility he'll see an Atlas missile fired.

There's a likelihood that while in the Palm Springs area Kennedy will have a meeting with his predecessor, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

The President's brother, Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, will accompany him on the flight to California. The attorney general has a date Saturday to attend a state conference on crime prevention in Los Angeles.

The President will be spending the weekend in a state where the breezes of politics are blowing strong—the scene of a highly significant off-year election in which former Vice President Richard M. Nixon seeks the Republican nomination to challenge Edmund G. Brown, the Democratic incumbent, for governor.

The President may go back to California again, but the White House describes this trip as non-political.

Kennedy will address a charter day convocation at the University of California in Berkeley this afternoon, receive the 21st in his collection of honorary degrees and then fly to Vandenberg Air Force Base.

Shortly after dusk, the chief executive is due to land in Palm Springs, where he may see Eisenhower before the weekend is over. The only announced plan is for Kennedy to relax until Sunday night at a private residence.

That residence is reportedly single Bing Crosby's place on Shadow Mountain, outside Palm Springs itself.

Eisenhower has been spending several months in a plush cottage at Palm Desert, in the same neighborhood.

Kennedy is scheduled to leave Sunday night, sleeping aboard his Air Force jet on the return flight to Washington.

Representative Wants IRS Survey

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Internal Revenue Service was asked Thursday by Rep. Catherine D. Norrell, D - Ark., "what occasioned" an IRS tax survey in Dallas County, Ark.

The survey, conducted by 30 IRS agents, resulted in a disclosure of over $40,000 due in income taxes.

Mrs. Norrell wrote Commissioner Morlimer M. Caplin: "I do not feel that the original intent of the Internal Revenue Service was to embarrass the people of Dallas County, create resentment and hurt the town publicly."

"But the outcome of the survey (the shortage) has resulted in Dallas County 'losing face' with other counties in the state, as well as seriously deteriorating the public relations between Dallas County and the federal government."

The IRS said when it made the survey it was doing so as an experiment.

During the survey over 9,000 income tax returns were audited.

The Fordyce Chamber of Commerce estimated that business dropped off 50 per cent while the agents were present.

Please No Complaints on Language

By JIM BECKER

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—No more complaints please about the jargon we use over here in the sports department. We've gone respectable, or at least as respectable as Webster's Third New International Dictionary can make us.

For years we've been accused of bewildering Little League mothers and newspaper managing editors with a language all our own. But those tortured words and phrases have made the new dictionary in force.

Four-bagger? It's right there: "A home run." Haymaker? "A powerful blow with a fist often resulting in a knockout." Red dog? "To rush the passer in football." Lay-up? "A jumping one-hand shot in basketball made off the backboard from close under the basket."

There's "pigskin," and "horsehide," and even "bum," both tennis and ski.

There's southpaw. "A left-handed baseball pitcher." Also, "A boxer who leads with the right hand and foot forward, while guarding with the left hand."

Pool in the bucket: "Batting with the foot nearest the pitcher drawn back from the plate."

Steal: "To gain a base by running without the aid of a hit or an error."

Also "grinder" and "cager" but, mercifully, not thimble. They had to draw the line somewhere.

However, the man who wrote the dictionary definition for "pitcher" either never saw Tommy Bridges or Johnny Sain at their best, or didn't believe it.

He defines it this way: "A baseball pitch in which the ball swerves or appears to swerve from its normal course of flight because of a spin put on it in delivery."

The screwball man apparently saw Carl Hubbell work. Here's his definition: "A baseball pitch having reverse spin and a break in the opposite direction to a curve."

Even the spitball is legal in the dictionary. "A baseball pitch delivered after the ball has been moistened with saliva or sweat."

GOPs Figure They'll Gain Eight Seats

By D. HAROLD OLVER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Now that the task of congressional redistricting due to population shifts is about over, major party election experts see the possible results this way:

Republicans figure they will wind up with a net gain of about eight House seats as a result of the reapportionment, although they believe some of the new contests, such as in Hawaii and Michigan, will be close.

Democrats say the GOP claims are too optimistic, and figure to come out of the reshuffling with a net loss of not more than four seats. They say with a hard fight they could reduce this estimate.

The main difference between the estimates lies in the GOP claim of a gain of one seat each in Arizona, Hawaii, Michigan and Ohio. Democrats put these new seats in the doubtful column and say they should have an edge in Michigan.

Also, there is some conflict in the two-party claims respecting California, New York and Pennsylvania.

In all, 16 states lose 21 House memberships and nine states gain 19 seats under the 1960 census, which will be reflected in the Nov. 6 elections.

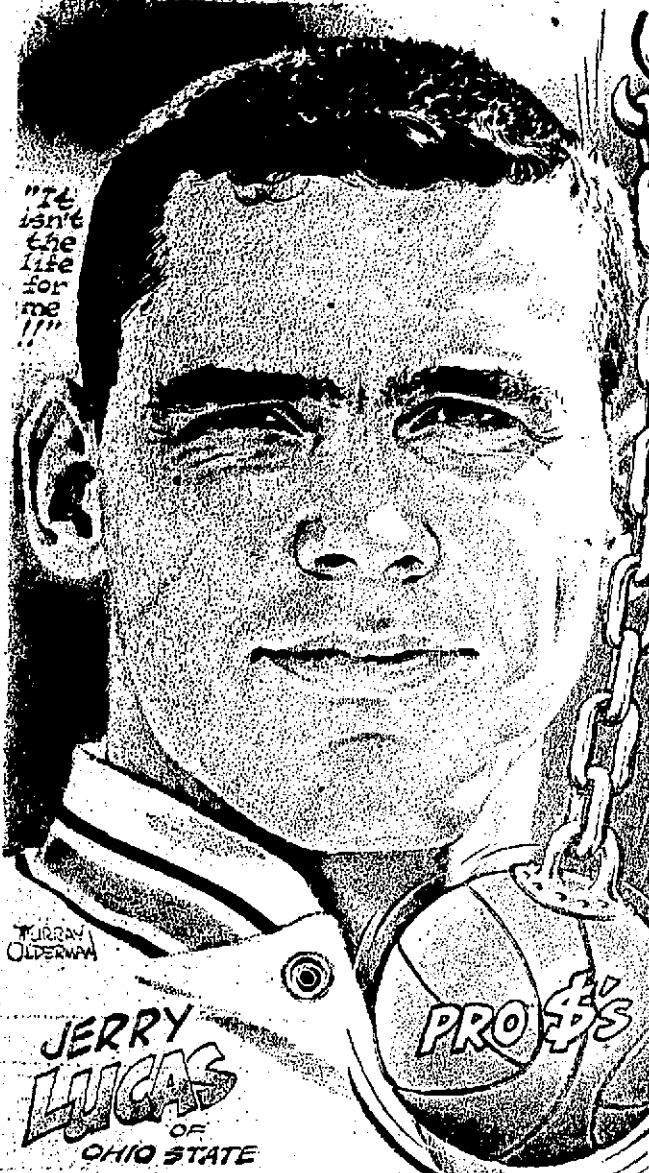

Of the losing states, only Massachusetts, whose House delegation is cut from 14 to 12, and Mississippi, reduced from 6 to 5, have yet to redistrict. Both states are considering the matter, but the Bay State has a much tougher problem and there is a prospect that all 12 representatives will be forced to run in statewide races.

Alabama, cut from 9 to 8, also has not redistricted, but has a novel primary plan which will result in all 8 seats being filled at large.

Of the states that gain seats, Hawaii, Michigan, Ohio and Texas, which pick up 1 each, have no remapped, so they will elect their extra member at large. Maryland will too because, after redistricting, the plan was challenged and Ohio. Democrats put these new seats in the doubtful column and say they should have an edge in Michigan.

Every Democratic or Republican loss from reapportionment does not necessarily mean a gain for the other party. For example, the Democrats will lose one seat in Alabama and two in Arkansas solid Democratic delegations from simply because they now have those states and reapportionment cut them that many.

Baby Kangaroo Likes Peek-a-Boo

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A baby kangaroo plays peek-a-boo at the Little Rock zoo and the keepers don't know what to do.

The roodiest little rascal, born to one of the zoo's two female kangaroos, is hiding in its mother's pouch and won't let the keepers learn its sex.

Director Raymond A. Squires is patient though. He says a newborn kangaroo sometimes hides in its mother's pouch for six months.

Its proud papa just sits around thumbing his tail.

Marron Come From Behind for Victory

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—

Larry Spraker guided the Jacpot Stable's Marron from seventh to a five-length victory in the $3,000 feature Wednesday at Oaklawn Park.

Marron covered the six furlongs in 1:11.15 and sped past Winston Neil's Volunteer State, Mumzy K., owned by Kilkerry Farm of Hot Springs, ran third, a nose farther back.

The winner paid $9.80, $5.20 and $5.00.

A crowd of 9,112 wagered $639,040.

Irving Gushen's Bumpy Road is finding it bumpy in his current comeback attempt.

Scratched Tuesday because of a sloppy track after finishing short in four other tries at Oaklawn Park, the one-time speed merchant makes another bid today, going against 11 other good sprinters in the featured $3,500 American Legion Purse.

The six-furlong dash is for four-year-olds and up carrying claiming price tags ranging from $11,000 to $12,500.

Opposing the seven-year-old Andys Glory gelding, a star handicapper performer in 1960 and then idled until this year by an injury, will be strong competition.

Among the major threats are Marion H. Van Berg's entry composed of Cable King and Mr. M. H. Everett Lawrence's Lead-stealer and Mrs. Emil Demark's Mangam.

W. Hal Bishop sends out an entry made up of Charlie's Admiral and Bold Dude.

Others entered are the Fort Smith-owned Duney Stable's Fair Hour, S. S. Kirkland's Prepetual Boy, Ford Stable's Bubble Pick, H. B. Atkinson and Foster Estes' Mile Box and Mrs. A. M. Crech's Greek Challenger.

Bumpy Road will carry 112 pounds, 10 less than top weighted Mr. M.H., and will be ridden by Spraker.

The Gushen colorbearer was a close-up second in his last two Oaklawn efforts to Our Special Jet and Tin God, losing to the latter by a nose.

Mangam has been running long or races and the sprint distance of today's feature may make him more dangerous.

Favorites Near Showdown in NCAA Tourney

By DON WEISS

Associated Press Sports Writer

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Poised, powerful Ohio State plays Wake Forest and cool, crafty Cincinnati meets UCLA tonight in the climax of their drive toward a second straight showdown for the National Collegiate (NCAA) basketball championship.

The Buckeyes, No. 1 in the nation, and the second-ranked Bearcats are all but odds-on to win the semifinals with ease and set up another all-Ohio championship.

If they make it to Saturday's final, it'll be the first time the same two schools have played for the championship two years in a row. Last year, Cincinnati won its first NCAA title—snapping Ohio State's 32-game winning streak—and dethroning the 1960 champs, 70-65 in overtime.

Wake Forest, which has drawn All-America Jerry Lucas and Ohio State in the opener, rolled behind All-America Len Chappell and Billy Packer to win its last 12 games and the Eastern Regional eliminations after winning but nine of its first 17. Included in that slow start was an 84-62 loss to the mighty Buckeyes at Wins-ton-Salem in December.

Johnny Wooden's UCLA Bruins also got the Ohio State shock treatment in December, losing to the Bucks in the Los Angeles Classic 101-84. But the Bruins—like Wake Forest in its recovery in the Atlantic Coast Conference—bounced back and won 14 of their last 16 games in nailing the Big Five title and the Far West regional.

The Bruins have team speed and balance, an 18-9 record, and a band of sharpshooters led by 6-foot-2 Johnny Green, with a 19.4 average.

Most concede, however, that it will take Wake Forest and UCLA at their absolute best to stay close to the powerful Ohio teams. Even the coaches—Ed Jucker of Cincinnati and Fred Taylor of Ohio State—admit their teams might be better than a year ago, when their battle drew praise as one of the great games in basketball history.

Recommendations on Parks Work

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Tentative recommendations on how a $900,000 appropriation for parks improvements should be spent will be discussed by the entire state Publicity and Parks Commission at a meeting here today.

The recommendations were prepared by the commission's Park Committee with the help of Park Director Bryan Starns.

Details of the recommendations were withheld pending commission action.

The commission also will take preliminary steps toward setting up a master parks plan. Parks development has been sporadic in the past.

The commission was also to preview the film "Wonders of Arkansas," being processed by Columbia Pictures. The film now runs one hour, but it will be cut to 20 minutes for commercial release.

They Got Neither a Ding or Dong

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—A group of business, civic and political leaders gathered in the rotunda of the State Capitol Thursday to ring the state's replica of the Liberty Bell in honor of Patriot Day. But they got neither a ding nor a dong.

To their embarrassment, they found that the bell clapper was securely tied down.

Capitol official said the clapper had to be fixed to the side of the bell, to keep voting school children from disrupting the capitol staff with unannounced bong.
